LEGAL NOTICES.

TO RAILROADS AND OTHER TRANSPORTATION companies, and proprietors of slaughtering, meat-canning, salting, packing, rendering, or similar establishments.-Your attention is invited to the fact that under the terms of the Meat Inspection Act, approved June 30, 1906, no person, firm or corporation shall, on and after October 1, 1906, transport or offer for transportation and no carrier of interstate or foreign commerce shall transport, or receive for transportation from one State or Territory, or the District of Columbia, to another State or Territory or the District of Columbia, or to any place under the jurisdiction of the United States, or to any foreign country, any carcass, or parts thereof, meat or meat food products thereof, which have not been inspected, examined and marked "Inspected and Passed," in accordance with the terms of the law, and with the rules and regulations prescribed by the Secretary of Agriculture. An examination may be made by the Secretary of Agriculture of retail butchers and retail dealers in meat and meat food products, supplying their customers through the medium of interstate or foreign commerce. The above provision of law necessitates either the establishment of inspection or a notice of exemption by the Department of Agriculture, on or before October 1, 1906, for all persons who expect to offer meat or meat food products for transportation in interstate or foreign commerce on and after that date. To enable the Department to determine upon the necessary number of inspectors, and to either establish inspection or to grant exemption, all persons, firms, and corporations who do not now have inspection and who deal in meat or meat food products, which are transported either in interstate or foreign commerce, are requested to send immediately to the Secretary of Agriculture a full and complete statement of the amount of meat or meat food products handled in interstate or foreign commerce by the particular establishment, the location and the character of the operations of the establishment, the names of the proprietors of the establishment, and such other information as may be necessary to enable the Secretary of Agriculture to determine whether inspection or exemption should be granted.-JAMES WILSON, Secretary. 7-13-2t.
